MAINE TRANSPORTATION ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Friday, October 4, 2019 | Hilton Garden Inn, Freeport

Please join us as we celebrate four giants in the field of transportation in Maine

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT

John DORITY

MaineDOT Chief Engineer, 1995 to 2009

The consummate engineer, John's wit and vast knowledge shaped the modern MaineDOT and its focus on the safety of Maine's roads and bridges. This honor will be awarded posthumously.

Tim Folster

Vice President Operations, Sargent Corp.

MBTA President, 2005-2006 | MBTA Board Member, 1994 - present

Tim is one of the smartest people we know. He is passionate about transportation and has mentored many in the industry. His leadership has been instrumental for transportation in Maine and the association.

Steve Sawyer

Senior Vice President of Transportation, Sebago Technics

MBTA President, 2002-2003 & 2015-2016 | MBTA Board Member, 1993-present

Steve has led his profession in advancing new technologies, and he has been a tenacious and loyal advocate for transportation, stepping up to help the MBTA at every critical juncture.

TRANSPORTATION CHAMPION

Dr. Habib Dagher

Founding Executive Director, Advanced Structures & Composites Center at the University of Maine

Habib has created a center for innovation in Maine and changed how the world thinks about bridges.
